Hope for the Holidays

Our Story

Jeremiah's Voice was born out of love, faith, and a deep belief that every life has purpose, regardless of any medical label.

As a single mother and full-time caregiver to my son Jeremiah, I know firsthand the weight of navigating countless appointments, therapies, and unexpected challenges. But more than that, I know the joy of witnessing daily miracles and the strength that comes from choosing to hope over fear. Jeremiah was born at just 1 pound, 15 ounces, and given 24 hours to live. From that very moment, I leaned on my faith and asked God to let him live. Not only did he live, but he continues to thrive and inspire every day.

Yes, Jeremiah received multiple medical diagnoses, but none of them defines him. He is not a label. He is a world-changer. A reader. A fighter. A bright light with a smile that touches hearts. His journey is a testimony to resilience, possibility, and the power of believing in more.

Starting Jeremiah's Voice was my way of turning personal pain into a purposeful impact. I knew I wasn't alone in this journey, and I wanted to create a safe place for other parents and caregivers to be encouraged, equipped, and supported. Here, we celebrate every child and adult living with disabilities, not for their challenges, but for who they are and all they bring to the world.

We believe that with the right resources, community, and support, families can rise above limitations and embrace a life that goes beyond surviving, one that thrives. Our programs center around three core pillars: Life Enrichment, Celebrating Lives, and Hope for the Holidays. From spa days for caregivers to community events and efforts to raise awareness, everything we do is rooted in the belief that every voice matters and every life has value.

At Jeremiah's Voice, we don't accept the narrative that disabilities limit purpose. Instead, we stand on the truth that everyone deserves to live fully, love deeply, and be seen completely. Our motto says it all: Living Beyond Disability.

The Why Behind Our Work

Jeremiah's Voice is honored to serve families across North Texas through our Hope for the Holidays initiative. This program was created to bring joy and relief to parents and caregivers of children and adults with disabilities, providing them with the opportunity to enjoy the holidays without the worry of purchasing gifts or preparing meals. This year, we are honored to serve seven children.

Program Goals

Provide age-specific, disability-appropriate holiday gifts valued up to $1,500 per family.

- Deliver a full holiday meal to each family's home.
- Ease the stress, anxiety, and emotional weight that often accompany the season.
- Raise awareness, foster inclusion, and help families feel valued and supported.

Why It Matters

While many organizations provide holiday gifts, few consider the unique needs of children with disabilities. Standard toys may overwhelm or even traumatize them due to sensory sensitivities. Hope for the Holidays ensures every gift is thoughtful, appropriate, and joyful, meeting children where they are and celebrating who they are. Our sponsors make this possible by providing families with holiday experiences that honor their needs and remind them they are not alone.

What Families Receive

- A complete holiday meal delivered to their home for the entire household.
- Age-specific and disability-appropriate gifts valued up to $1,500 per family.
- Connection to Jeremiah's Voice, an organization dedicated to helping families "Live Beyond Disability."

The cost for many items may require additional adaptability, which increases the traditional price.*

Our Impact

Since 2018, Hope for the Holidays has opened the door for families to experience the heart of Jeremiah's Voice. With the generosity of our donors and community partners, we've delivered holiday meals and provided age-specific, disability-appropriate gifts, creating moments of joy, relief, and connection. Each family featured below is a reminder of why we do what we do. As we grow this initiative, our commitment remains the same: to make the holiday season a meaningful time of encouragement and celebration for families caring for individuals with disabilities.
